

Newsletter

September 2023

RENOWNED BROADCAST JOURNALIST KWAME SEFA-KAYI EXPLORES SYNERGIES WITH KSTU LEADERSHIP IN GROUNDBREAKING VISIT

A momentous occasion unfolded at Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) as the Institution played host to one of Ghana's distinguished broadcast journalist, Mr. Kwame Sefa-Kayi. This courtesy call and its associated interactions were held in the Council Chamber on Friday, September 9th, 2023. The essence of the visit was to deepen the University's relationship with this illustrious figure in the field of journalism. Read more

SPECIAL ACADEMIC GOWNS UNVEILED FOR KSTU DEANS AND DIRECTORS: A MARK OF ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

A truly remarkable moment unfolded at Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) as the Faculty of Creative Arts and Technology unveiled eleven (11) special academic gowns designed exclusively for the Deans and Directors of the various faculties of the University. These elegant gowns which were made in the official University colours and symbols were set to become the official attire for all ceremonial functions within and outside of the Institution. Read more

KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY SHINES BRIGHTLY AT THE 8TH AFRICA TECH CHALLENGE

Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) has once again demonstrated its technical prowess and excellence on the international stage, emerging with distinction at the prestigious Africa Tech Challenge (ATC) held at the Technical University of Kenya in Nairobi, Kenya's capital. Read more

KSTU AND UNIVERSITÉ NORBERT ZONGO FOSTER CROSS-CULTURAL LEARNING WITH LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAMME

Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) has once again reaffirmed its commitment to fostering global education and cross-cultural understanding through a renewed partnership with Université Norbert Zongo, one of Burkina Faso's distinguished public universities. This collaboration brings forth an enriching Language Immersion Programme, which is aimed at bridging linguistic and cultural gaps. Read more

KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY WELCOMES NEW SRC LEADERSHIP IN HISTORIC HANDOVER CEREMONY

Kumasi Technical University witnessed a momentous occasion as the outgoing 2022/2023 executives of the Students' Representative Council (SRC) officially handed over the mantle of leadership to the incoming 2023/2024 team. This event marked a significant chapter in the history of the Institution, filled with gratitude for the past and hope for the future. Read more

KSTU ERASMUS+ SCHOLARSHIPS PROPEL STUDENTS TO INTERNATIONAL EXCELLENCE IN TURKEY AND GERMANY

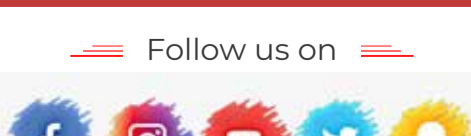

Kumasi Technical University continues to make strides towards its vision of becoming a world-class institution, as six outstanding students have been selected to embark on a transformative journey to study at Sivas Cumhuriyet University, Turkey as well as Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development, Germany. These exceptional students were chosen through a highly competitive application process to receive scholarships that will support their academic pursuits abroad for a five-year period. Read more

VICE-CHANCELLOR EMBARKS ON CAMPUS TOUR AT ADAKO JACHIE

In a remarkable demonstration of his commitment to enhancing the educational experience at Kumasi Technical University (KsTU), the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Gabriel Dwomoh, and his esteemed management team embarked on a comprehensive tour of the Adako Jachie campus. The visit, which encompassed inspections of the newly constructed Faculty of Creative Arts and Technology (FCAT) building, renovations at the GETFUND Hall, and the SRC, showcased the University's dedication to progress and development. Read more

Follow us on

www.kstu.edu.gh

powered by University Relations Directorate