

May 2026

KsTU ORGANISES CAPACITY-BUILDING TRAINING FOR SENIOR MEMBERS (NON-TEACHING)

Picture: Facilitators of the training programme in a group photograph with the Vice-Chancellor Prof. Gabriel Dwomoh (middle), alongside the Registrar, Mr. Ebenezer Kofi Boakye (1st from right), and the Head of the HR (3rd from right) during the training session.

Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) has organised a capacity-building training programme for Senior Members (Non-Teaching) at the New Great Hall as part of efforts to strengthen administrative efficiency, professional development, and institutional governance within the University.

The training which was organised by the Human Resource Directorate of the University under the auspices of the Vice-Chancellors of Technical Universities – Ghana (VCTU-G), brought together senior administrative and professional staff of KsTU to enhance their knowledge and competencies in university administration and governance. Read more

KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (KsTU) CONSTITUTES ELECTORAL BOARD FOR FIRST GLOBAL

Picture: The newly constituted electoral board in a group photo during the Alumni homecoming celebration..

Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) has taken a significant step towards strengthening its alumni network following the constitution of a five-member Electoral Board to oversee the election of the first Global Executives of the University's Alumni Association.

The announcement was made during the University's Alumni Homecoming held on 27th March 2026 at the Great Hall of the University. The event brought together alumni from different graduating years, senior university officials, and distinguished guests in a celebration marked by reconnection, collaboration, and renewed commitment to the advancement of the Institution. Read more

GRASAG-KsTU BEGINS NEW CHAPTER AS NEWLY ELECTED EXECUTIVES TAKE OFFICE

Picture: The Dean of Graduate School (3rd from right) in a group picture with the newly sworn in executives.

The Graduate Students' Association of Kumasi Technical University (GRASAG-KsTU) has officially sworn in a new set of executives to steer the affairs of the Association for the next administration period, following a prolonged electoral dispute that delayed the Association's elections and transition process.

The hand-over and swearing-in ceremony was held at the EEE Conference Hall on 18th May 2026 and it marked a significant moment in the Association's leadership transition and brought together graduate students and members of the outgoing and incoming administrations.

The newly sworn-in executives include Mr Joseph Oppong Boateng as President, Mr John Owusu as Treasurer, Ms Abigail Rubaba Gariba as Women's Commissioner, Mr Godwin Ngan as Financial Secretary, Mr Isaac Forson as Organising Secretary, and Ms Antionette Bassaw as Secretary. Read more

KsTU SIGNS MOU WITH ALVERNIA UNIVERSITY TO DRIVE RESEARCH COMMERCIALISATION AND ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Picture: Representatives from KsTU (1st and 3rd from left) and the O'Pake Institute for Economic Development and Entrepreneurship, during the official signing of a Memorandum of Understanding.

Kumasi Technical University (KsTU) has taken a bold step onto the global stage after formally signing a Memorandum of Understanding with Alvernia University in the United States. The agreement was sealed at the O'Pake Institute for Economic Development and Entrepreneurship during a courtesy call by KsTU's Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Gabriel Dwomoh, and the Registrar, Mr. Ebenezer Kofi Boakye. Representing Alvernia University were the President Dr. Glynis Fitzgerald and the Chief Community, Economic and Strategic Development Officer, Dr. Rodney S. Ridley, Sr. Read more

KsTU STRENGTHENS GLOBAL ACADEMIC TIES WITH FLORIDA GULF COAST UNIVERSITY

Picture: Prof Gabriel Dwomoh (left) and the Vice President of Florida Gulf Coast University proudly display the signed MoU following a successful partnership agreement.

Kumasi Technical University has signed an agreement for academic cooperation with Florida Gulf Coast University (FGCU) in a move to strengthen international academic collaboration and creating broader opportunities for students, faculty, and researchers of both institutions.

The agreement establishes a strategic framework for cooperation between the two universities in the areas of academic exchange, research, and institutional development. The partnership is expected to enhance global learning experiences while deepening educational and cultural ties between Ghana and the United States. Read more